GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

BRIGHTON STEWARDS BAR SIG ROSENTHAL AT THE GATES.

Man Who Is Known as "Beansey" and Who Resisted Arrest on Saturday Will Probably Be Ruled Off by the Jockey Club—Comedienne Wins a Queer Race.

Because of his disorderly conduct in re-sisting arrest at the track on Saturday, Sig Rosenthal, otherwise known as "Beansey," will probably be ruled off the turf. The stewards of the Brighton meeting notified the Pinkertons yesterday that the privileges of the track had been denied to Rosenthal and when the latter arrived at the gate just atter the first race and purchased a badge he was informed that he could not pass the turnstiles. His money, three dollars, was refunded. It is understood that the stewards also sent a strong recommendation to the Jockey Club to the effect that Beansey should be kept off all of the other tracks. Incidentally the word was passed to all of yesterday that in case of arrest they should go willingly with the police or deputy sheriffs to the station house; also that any persons who might create a disturbance of any kind in future would be barred from the

It has always been the policy of the track owners to see that the law is enforced and to do all in their power to prevent disorder. As a result the ruling off of Rosenthal was generally expected in spite of the fact that he generally expected in spite of the fact that he boasts of a pull with several well known politicians who are interested in turf affairs. When the stewards ruling became known it was generally commended by the regulars. who insisted that no person who had the interests of the turf at heart in these troublous times should resist the authorities. Three men were arrested in the "field" yesterday for alleged violations of the betting law. Their names are C. Greenwood, O. Singer and S. Brown.

The race run by Comedienne in the third event yesterday caused the gossips to get unusually busy. The last time Comedienne ran, ridden by McDaniel, she could not get up a respectable gallop. Her defeat on that occasion was said to be partially due to a bad ride. She had McDaniel in the saddle yesterday and was asked to go a sixteenth of a mile further, but she was a wild mare this time and simply stood the other starters fast time of 1:52 4-5 and enabled some of the emartest people on the track to celebrate what proved to be for them a decidedly profit-Molesey, 11 to 5 favorite, got a weird ride from Jensen, a green apprentice, while Col. White, 5 to 2, who had wonderful speed in his previous race, could not beat a prize hog going up a hill. George G. Hall, who Comedienne to death the last time out, ran fourth, nearly ten lengths behind the Plaudit mare. The fact that Coat of Arms, an erractic plug, and Disobedient, a patched up cripple, easily disposed of Col. White and Molesey, made close observers wonder whether there ever was such a thing as public form.

Bouquet undertook to give twelve pounds by the scale to Arasee in the handicap for three-year-olds, but the Blues gelding proved too much for her. Bouquet, at that, got a weak looking ride from McDaniel. In addition to riding Arasee to victory, little Sweet also scored with Ragman and handled two thirds. Arasee has developed into a pretty shifty racer for Sam Emery who will sand him to California for the winter campaign.

Boosts in selling races are a daily feature just now. When Black Mary won the fifth event, for which she was entered, to be sold for $1,000, Maurice Kraus bid her up to $1,500 usual $5 increase. Ragman, the winner of the last event, was also bid up. He was entered at $1,400 and when put up at auction an unknown turfman raised the figure to $2,000, owner House sending Ragman back to the barn with a $5 raise. These boosts netted $550 for the association, more than

The first well known bookmaker to decide to try his luck on the Falish track is Henry Wendt, a member of to Mets, who has just made arrangements to operate in connection with a concern associated with Tattersall's. He will sail for the other side of the ocean in a os others will follow in his footsteps. In a letter to Thomas Weish, Eugene Leigh, the well known American turfman, who has been racing on the French tracks for a numter of years, says that Fred Burlew, who cided to become a citizen of France. Burlew is well known here as the former partner of Frank O'Neill in the ownership of the once noted B. & O. Stable. When the anti-betting law was passed Burlew lost no time in packing up his traps and salling for the other side. "I've got enough of America," he said to his friends as he sta rted for the steamer.

Word comes from Seattle that W. L. Blalock and A. Allen have just been ruled off the turf.

Allen was formerly a tipster who got into trouble with the postal authorities. Blalock is known both here and in the West. Henry McDaniel, who trains for R. L. Thomas, arrived here yesterday with a string of nine horses, including Light Wool, Jane Swift, Harcourt, Lady Irma and Chipmunek. He won fifteen races on the Canadian circuit Several horsemen said yesterday that the management of the Fort Erie track had decided to reduce the value of overnight purses. For that reason, they said, they had con cluded not to race at the Cella-Condon-Madi-Black Mary, owned by Mrs. E. R. Bradley, who races the filly in the name of "Mr. Currie," has won three consecutive races. Though little McCarthy had the leg up, the smart set did not appear to fancy Plack Mary much because T. W. Coulter's He Knows looked like a cinch He Knows won in a big gallop the last time he raced, but when the "memory brokers" offered 7 to 5 against him in yesterday's race many stayed off. He Knows does not possess a heart of steel, so that when he could not get away first from Zal and then Frizette he showed the white feather. Frizette, by the way, could not have lost with a better break at the barrier.

Goldproof, who ran in this event, has won ten races this yeaf and recently arrived here in the care of Trainer J. W. Hall. Many thought that the Gold Spinner gelding would win easily, but going up the backstretch Jockey Roerner had him under a stiff pull and at the head of the stretch got him into a pocket which killed his chances. Goldproof is fit, however, and will bear watching.

The sharks who are usually wise as to what to expect in the steeplechases would have no part of Paprika in yesterday's race, the quotation going up from 1 to 2 to even money in some cases. They took Navajo instead and made enough oral wagers to force the latter's price down to 3 to 5. Some said that Paprika did not like the soft going, while others blamed his defeat upon McKinney whose ride was anything but clever.

Jimmy McCormick, who is training Jack Joyner's horses, put over a real good thing in Homecrest in the opening event. There was as much as 8 to 1 on tap at one stage of the speculation, and the Watercress colt who ran in the place. Civits looked the best a form, however, and was a strong favorite. Effendi, a fast colt by Previous-Hatasoo, was also in some demand, but Civita and Effendi both ran as if they had the "slows." There was a hot tip on P. J. Dwyer's Grania in the last race, but she was a bitter pill. Ragman's success was partially due to the fact that Short Cut killed off Ruble in the early pacemaking.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., July 27 .- The annual polo tournament of the Point Ju-dith Country Club opened at Wildfield Farm to-day Play was for the Narrangansett cups and the rival fours were the Bryn Mawrs of Pennsylvania and the Myopias of Massachusetts Bryn Mawr won the opening match by a score of 21 to 15%. In the 11th period Hamilton Hadden was thrown from his pony and sustained a few slight interest.

QUAKERS IN CLOSE MATCH. First Day's Cricket Against Northamptonshire Ends With Little Advantage.

Special Catte Dergaigh to THE SUN.

NORTHAMPTON, July 27.—The sixth game in the tour of the Gentlemen of Philadelphia was begun this morning, the Quakers being opposed by the Northamptonshire eleven, which three years ago was admitted into the select coterie of the first class county teams The advantage after the day's play was not great on either side, as the Englishmen were 41 runs behind and had four wickets still on hand when stumps were drawn. The bowlers carried off the honors, Smith for the home team getting the fine analysis of six wickets for 36 runs, while H. V. Hordern of the University of Pennsylvania obtained every wicket but one that fell while his side was in versity of Pennsylvania obtained every wicket but one that fell while his side was in the field.

The Quakers won the toss and opened with J. B. King and F. S. White. Before a run had been registered king fell a victim to a good catch by Thompson at short slip, and A. M. Wood, who came next, only managed to score 8 before he succumbed. Disaster still followed the Philadelphians, as D. H. Adams and J. A. Lester were both unable to improve matters, and up to this time F. S. White was the only man who had shown any sign of stopping the collapse.

With four wickets down for 33 runs White was partnered by F. H. Bohlen, and an immediate change in the character of the play was shown. White had by this time become well set and was scoring rapidly, while Bohlen put on runs faster than is his wont, and the two players carried the score to measureable distance of the hundred mark before White was caught for an invaluable innings of 41.

After the luncheon interval, with the total at 107 for 5 wickets. Bohlen and C. C. Morris made a stand, but both of them fell victims to Smith's deceptive slow bowling, and N. Z. Graves, who followed, was disposed of by Weils for a cipher.

Each of the remaining batsmen, however, got into double figures, Sayen especially playing with confidence, and the total of 166, that was eventually reached, was far higher than seemed possible cariler in the innings. In addition to Smith, who carried off the honors with the ball, Wells was able to find his way to the sticks three times, but his record was not nearly so favorable. His three wickets were obtained at a total cost of 62 runs, while Hawkins captured 1 for 15. Northamptonshire opened none too well, Hordern being found very difficult on the slow wicket. Hayward was disposed of for and Seymour added but s. Thompson and Smith made a fine rally and put on over 50 runs in partnership for the third wicket. Thompson was then clean bowled in attempting to drive, while Smith fell a victim to the alertness of the American wickct-theoper, after putting

GRAND CIRCUIT OPENS WELL. Jack Leyburn Beats Track Record in Free for All Trot.

DETROIT, July 27 .- Jack Leyburn furnished the sensation of the opening meeting of the Grand Circuit here to-day by turning two heats in 2:05% and 2:04% and winning the free for all trot, chased out alternately by Margaret O. and Oro. Both miles set new records for the State fair track, on which the Grand Circuit horses are competing for the first time. The second mile was the fastest ever trotted in competition on a Michigan ever trotted in competition on a Michigan racetrack.

The racing was spirited all day and about 6,000 persons saw the events. The main betting race of the day was the 2:00 pace, in which Copa De Oro, a well played second choice, made a show of Star Patch, the original favorite, tramping two miles below 2:05 and winning easily each time from Major Mallow. A large field started in this event, including Judex, owned and driven by James Farley, the strike breaker.

The 2:25 trot went to Zomalta, a California bred trotter, after Brace Girdle had taken the first heat. In the 2:18 pace Kendig, the favorite, took the first two heats in slow time, after which Sunderlin took Brownell to the front, never to be headed in the remaining three heats of the race. A considerable killing was made by a number of Easterners in the pools on this event.

Gieers to-day announced that Highball, 2:03%, had gone lame and would be unable to race Sweet Marie on Thursday, as had been arranged.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. Handicap at a Mile and a Sixteenth the Feature.

A handloap at a mile and a sixteenth is the feature of the eard for Brighton Beach to-day, with the Patchogue entry 'Nealon and Don Enrique) in probable favor over Bad News, Lally and others. In the first race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, Siskin, Dander and Fore may be the factors. In the second race, for three-year-olds, one mile and a furlong, Crack Shot, Obert and Golconda have chances.

In the third event, at six furlongs, Adoration, Salvolatile and Trouveur figure well. Maiden two-year-olds will run in the fifth race, at five and half furlongs, with Dandy Dixon, Dr. Pillow and Catherine Simpson possibly the best, in the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Trash, Saylor and Monocle lock formidable. DIXIE II. TO MEET WOLSELEY

SELECTED TO DEFEND THE BRIT-ISH INTERNATIONAL TROPHY.

Makes Fine Showing in First Race of the Trials, Averaging 25.7 Nautical Miles Could Have Made Better Time Other Boats to Be Chosen To-day.

The Dixie II., owned by former Commodore E. J. Schroeder, won the motor-boat race at Huntington yesterday afternoon! She went around the ten mile triangular course three times without missing an explosion in 1 hour 9 minutes 57 seconds, which is at the rate of 25.7 nautical miles an hour. It was a remarkable showing for a vessel that has been in the water only two days and impressed the committee so much that Dixie II. was at once named as one of the representatives of the Motor Boat Club of America to meet the Wolseley-Siddeley, the challenger for the British international trophy, next Satur-

This proceeding was somewhat irregular but was warranted by the conditions. Nine boats had been entered in the eliminating for two weeks began yesterday. In these trials the committee reserved to itself the right to select the three boats which in their judgment were best suited to defend the trophy. Only four of these nine showed up and of these only two finished the course, the Dixie II. and the Den. The Dixie II.

defeated the Pun by 1 minutes 7 seconds.

Burling the race she turned up 640 evelutions a minute and when pushed to her limit she can turn up 830. Only during the last mile of the course was she driven to her top: ling. After the race Clinton H. Crans, the designer, Allan Whitman and H. M. Crans, the builders of the motor, asked the committee, in which and she was the rest of this week in making such improvements as have suggested themselves and which will help the speed of the vessel.

He was and spend the rest of this week in making such improvements as have suggested the suggestion and decided that as the Dirie II. had beaten the other boats so decisively for but was a cut to defeat her it was beat to let those in charge have all the time possible to prepare for the big event on Saturday and so they announced lected. The Dirie was taken to the engine builders hope at Bayonne at once and will be put in the best possible condition to meet the Woiseley-Siddery Arternoon was started from a line in Huntington Bay and about a quarter of a mile from the terraces of the Chaiceau des Reaux-Arts, and then crans and the woiseley-Siddery and the worse of these bord. AMERICAN LEAGUE. New Yorks Again Outhit Detroits and Again Lese. As was expected, the New York Americans went away from Detroit without winning a game. They outbatted the Detroits again resterday, but couldn't get the needed runs. The Washingtons dropped a game in St. Louis, while the Athletics defeated the White Sox and the Bostons vanquished the retro-grading Clevelands. The results:

Betroit, 4: New York, 2. St. Louis, 6; Washington, 0. Philadelphia, 2; Chicago, 1. Boston, 4; Cleveland, S. STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

DETROIT, 4: NEW YORK (A. L.) 2. DETROIT, July 27.-Up to the Detroit half of the seventh inning New York had to-day's game well in hand. New York picked up its ret run in the fourth on Delehanty's smash through the box, his steal of second, a wild pitch and Ball's single smash to left. The second run came in the sixth when Conroy after singling was forced on Chase's bounder to Coughlin. Hemphill's drive to right gave atter singling was forced on Chase's bounder to Coughlin. Hemphill's drive to right gave Chase third and he scored on Moriarty's hard liner to left. All the other hits of the New Yorkers were wasted.

In the fatal seventh, with Rossman out on an easy fly to Conroy, Coughlin singled past first. Schmidt was then struck out. Downs followed with a Texas League hit ever short and Coughlin took second. Kleinow attempting to catch Downs off first threw low and Coughlin reached third on the mistake. Then Hogg hit Willetts with a pitched balls and the bases were filled. A base on balls to McIntyre put Coughlin over the plate and advanced each runner a base, leaving the bases still filled. Chesbro was substituted for Hogg. Schaefer plunked one over second that Pall retrieved, but in throwing to catch McIntyre at second, after the runner had reached the base, threw wildly and everybody continued on. Conroy grabbed the ball and chucked it wildly to third in an attempt to catch McIntyre. Downs meantime had scored on Schaefer's drive and Willett had reached third. The throw was so bad that McIntyre followed Willett over the plate. Orth batted for Chasbro in the eighth and Manning pitched the last inning of the game.

PIRATES TAKE THIRD GAME OF THE SERIES.

Home Team Makes It Close, Though Weak With the Stick-Brooklyns Get One From Cubs After Losing One-Quakers Twice Victorious, Also the Bostons. The Eastern National League teams put

it over the Westerners yesterday in the seven games that were played. The former won five of these, though there was slight solace in that locally, as the New Yorks lost. The Pirates beat the New Yorks, and they as well as the Chicagos gained on the home players. The Chicagos won and lost in Brooklyn. The climbing Quakers won two games from St. Louis and are getting dan-gerous. The Bostons downed the Cincinnatis in both parts of a double header. The results:

Pittsburg, 4: New York, 8. Chicago, S; Brooklyn, 1-First game. Brooklyn, 6; Chloago, 5 Second game. Philadelphia, 2; St. Louis, 1-First game. Philadelphia, 5; St. Louis, 1-Second game. Boston, 10; Cincinnati, 1-First game. Boston, 6; Cincinnati, O Second game.

PITTSBURG, 4: NEW YORK (N. L.), 3. Six of the eight hits made by the devastating Pirates at the Polo Grounds yesterday were for extra bases, and five of the six were associated closely with runs. It is an inter-esting fact that each of the four runs made by the Pirates was brought over the plate by a man who had used a two bagger as an entering wedge. It also is a mournful fact that four runs were enough to cause New York's defeat, not that there is anything particularly mournful about four runs in themselves; it is when they are more than the home team makes that it hurts. The hitting of the Pirates was much freer, more frequent and more slashing than New York's, yet before the game was over the New Yorks had the Pirates on the anxious seat. Wildness on the part of the Pittsburg box in-habitant was the reason for this. After pitching a fine game for seven innings Maddox lost his ballast in the eighth, got into deep water and Cy Young just managed to squeeze through the squally heritage bequeated

The New Yorks were too deficient with the stick to give their side of the game an en-couraging aspect, and while the shakiness with which Maddox was selzed created an exciting and hopeful situation for the moment, opposing weakness rather than native strength proved a frail factor in bringing victory. The game was played to another great big crowd, and the three games have attracted close to a 60,000 total attendance. Honus Wagner, the German juggernaut, unlimbered a couple of two baggers before he settled down to a human pace. There was fine outfield work by Clarke and Wilson, the latter hitting well too. Bridwell's fielding and hitting for New York were tiptop, while Larry Doyle made a superb jumping one hand catch of a shricking liner which Clarke furnished. Doyle went up as if from a spring and speared the bell with his left hand, his arm stretched out to the extreme limit.

nished. Doyle went up as it from a spring and speared the bell with his left hand, his arm stretched out to the extreme limit.

Wagner lost no time in punching a two bagger to left in the second inning. Abbatichlo sacrificed and Wilson hit to centre for two bases. The New Yorks evened the score in their half of the second on Seymour's single to centre, Devlin being hit by a pitched ball and a clean clout to left by Bridwell.

The Pittsburgs made three sockdolagers and one scratch hit off Crandail in the fourth inning. Clarke and Wagner stretched hits into doubles by fast and hold running. Abby sacrificed again, Wilson sliced a triple to right and Gibson's infield poke took such aggravating bounds that Devlin couldn't get hold of it. Three runs were distilled from this concoction of hickory and leather.

The midgame stage was pacific, but the eighth inning was turbulent. For the fourth consecutive time Maddox passed Bresnahan. In all those times he put only one ball over for Roger. Donlin was passed next. Bresnahan voyaged to third on Seymour's long fly to Wilson. Donlin stole second, and there was a delay while Wagner limped around on one foot as a result of being slid into by Donlin. Cap Clarke came in from the field to see how much his little shortstop was hurt, and he and Donlin appeared to be engaged in earnest conversation over the occurrence. Wagner convalesced speedily. Devilin was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases.

Right here Maddox was taken out, and when Young appeared in the offing there was a subtle Pirate scheme to give Young a chance to warm up. Young bore up under the yelling of the spectators better than Maddox, though Bresnahan came in when McCormick forced Devlin. Bridwell walked, filling, the bags again, and when Needham was hit by a pitched ball filling the bases.

RICAGO (N. L. ., S; BROOKLYN, 1-PIRST GAME

CHICAGO (N. L., S. BROOELYN, 1—FIRST GAMS.
Four hours of spirited baseball were played at Washington Park yesterday afternoon, and while the Brooklyns succumbed to the Chicagos in the first game they uncovered a rally in the eighth inning of the second game which turned defeat into victory and sent the Cubs away crestfallen. Reulbach's double, a must by Jordan and a bingle by Capt. Husk Chance gave the Cubs two runs in the eighth inning of the first game and sewed it up with a Chicago tag on it.

The second game was full of hard hitting, one Joseph Tinker spanking the pellet for four safeties, and one, Timothy Jordan, wading into Lundgren's service for two home runs. Neither of the home runs figured in the eighth inning rally, but they played their part all the same, for without them the rally would have been energy gone to waste.

The Brooklyns did all their damage in the eighth after the first two batters had been retired. Hummel and Alperman singled, and Jerdan drew a pass. Lumley was sent in to bat for Sheehan, and he made good. He banged a two bagger to centre, and Jehnny and Whitey and Timmy all thundered to the plate on the Homerio wallop. The scores:

Samuel Emery's Blues gelding Arasee, s to 5, was yictorious in the handicap for three-year-olds, one mile, run at Brighton Beach yesterday afternoon in the presence of about 6,000 spectators. Sweet had the mount and took Arasee to the front to make all the pace. Arasee shook off Black Oak, 5 to 1, on two separate occasions in the run up the backstretch and then as he rounded the turn for home he drew away. After that James B. Haggin's Bouquet, 2 to 10, who had been in close quarters for three-quarters of a mile, came with a rush under the whip, by Arasee had enough left to win handily by a length in 1:39 2-5. Bouquet had three lengths over Black Oak. Comedienne, 7 to 2, showed a startling form reversal when she made all the running in the third race, a selling event at a mile and a furlong, winning in a canter by eight lengths in 1:52 4-5. Coat of Arms, 10 to 1, lasted long enough to take the place from Disobedient, 7 to 1, by a nose. George G. Hall, 4 to 1, was close up. Col. White, 5 to 2, had no speed, while Molesey, 11 to 5, was badly ridden. Navajo, 2 to 1. after winning the steeple-chase, at about two miles, pulled up so lame

Navajo, 2 to 1. after winning the steeplechase; at about two miles, pulled up so lame that Dupee had to dismount and lead the Huron gelding back to the scales. Bannell, a to 1, took the place by three lengths from Paprika, 7 to 10. The latter made a poor showing and also received a queer looking ride. The time was 4:02 3-5.

A. J. Joyner's Homecrest, 5 to 1, led practically all the way in the first race, for twoyear-olds, five and a half furiongs, and won easily by a length in 1:07 3-5. Dandy Dixon, 7 to 1, showed improvement and took the place from Civita, 8 to 5, by a length and a half. The latter was always outrun but managed to finish third, half a length in front of Effendi, 2 to 1, with Personal, 10 to 1,

Black Mary, 4 to 1, ran a game race in the fifth event, for pisters, at six furiongs. She avoided the early pace but came with a great rush through the stretch and gct up under the whip to win by a head from Frizette, 5 to 1, who also came from nowhere and had a length and a half over He Knows, 6 to 5.
The latter had early speed but tired. Goldproof, 6 to 1, got an easy ride and was also in close quarters at the head of the stretch.
The time was 1:3.

Ragman; 8 to 5, won the last event, for twoyear-olds, five furlongs, in a gallop. He had five lengths over Ruble, 5 to 1, with Arondack, 12 to 1, a length back. Grania, 2 to 1, lacked her usual speed. The time was 1:01. Five favorites lost. The summaries:

Central Park lawn tennis players began their portion of the championship singles yesterday under the direction of the Public Parks Lawn Tennis Association of the United States. Rivalry ran high in all of the matches. Class predominated, diminutive John Ryan, H. Steinberg, John McKenna, Frank Fits and S. N. Pike all showing good form. Many defaults were necessary as players failed to appear early enough for matches. The committee decided on this action, as with the 128 entries the opening rounds could not be delayed.

At the direction of the executive committee the papers are being drawn for the incorporation of the association under the laws of this State. With the aid of the Park C. mmissioners and the authorities the association will endeavor to establish the public courts upon the same high plane as in England and Europe.
